

NOTICE & AGREEMENT

Re: Department of the Army Corps of Engineers

To all Owners, their family members and guests of Sunset Cove C.O.A.:

Sunset Cove Owners, in the past, have been accused of damaging Corps of Engineers property. The fines for damaging and/or destroying Corps of Engineers property are severe and non-negotiable. Therefore, in order to circumvent any reoccurring problems, please refer to the excerpts below from the Corps of Engineers Rules and Regulations. To review the Rules and Regulations in their entirety you may access their web site at swl.usace.army.mil/parks/tablerock/pdf/shoreline\_management\_plan\_1.pdf.

Altering public lands is a violation of CFR, Title 36, Rules & Regulations Covering Public Use of Corps of Engineers Water Resources Development Projects”.

Section 327.14 (a) states, “Destruction, injury, removal or any alteration of public property including vegetative growth, is prohibited except when in accordance with written permission of the District Commander.”

I, the undersigned, have read and understand the aforementioned statement.
